In everyday club play, it's not just a quick first impression that counts—it's above all a stick that remains stable and predictable through frequent changes of play. That's exactly where the Alpha LX3 Pro comes in: Its lightweight, balanced handling supports precise puck control without feeling twitchy, making it a great fit for players who want to combine passing, shooting, and stickhandling with a natural feel. The available curves and flex options help you tailor the stick more closely to your own playing style.

When making your selection, it's worth taking a close look at the blade orientation, bend, and stiffness to ensure the stick matches your usual technique and personal shooting style.
