Product information

Color: white

WARRIOR COVERT RS PRO WHITE is an ice hockey helmet for players looking for a classic two-piece design with modern comfort and thoughtful adjustability. Especially during regular practice and games, it's important that the helmet fits securely, comfortably absorbs impacts, and maintains a balanced fit even at high speeds.

- Construction: traditional two-piece helmet design
- Inner lining: compression-molded for comfort and cushioning
- Adjustment: tool-free adjustment system
- Ventilation: integrated airflow design through the helmet shell
- Protection: Designed for ice hockey with a focus on comfort and protection
- Color: white
- Size: S, M, or L

In everyday hockey play, this model's strengths really shine when equipment needs to function reliably and without hassle. The classic two-piece construction makes it easy to adapt to the shape of the head, while the tool-free system allows for effortless adjustments. The compression-molded inner lining contributes to a comfortable fit and provides cushioning against the typical impacts on the ice. Added to this is a ventilation system that channels airflow through the helmet and around the head—a feature that remains noticeable especially during intense sessions.

To ensure the right fit, the helmet size should be chosen so that the helmet sits securely without causing uncomfortable pressure.
