WARRIOR FOAM FOR CF100 is a replacement or exchange pad for the CF100 helmet and is designed for players who want to fine-tune their gear or replace a worn-out inner pad. Especially during regular training and games, a properly fitting foam insert makes a big difference, because the helmet will only sit securely and comfortably if the interior still fits just right.

- Product Type: Foam insert for hockey helmet
- Compatibility: Fits the Warrior CF100

In everyday hockey play, helmet pads are subjected to heavy wear and tear from sweat, frequent use, and transport. A fresh liner helps maintain more even contact between the head and the helmet. This is particularly beneficial for club players who regularly wear the CF100 during practice or on game days and prefer not to make unnecessary compromises with their equipment. The black version offers a simple, understated look.

It's important to ensure compatibility with the Warrior CF100 as well as with the existing M/L helmet size in the SR version.
