Protection size-1: SR

WARRIOR ALPHA PRO BLACK SR is an elbow pad designed for regular use in hockey, where mobility and reliable protection go hand in hand. Especially during practice and in intense game situations, the design helps keep the pad securely in place on the arm without unnecessarily restricting movement.

- System: Sling Wrap with Fantom Stretch
- Fit: Securely holds the elbow in place with a specially designed elbow pocket
- Cuff: War-Tech Sleeve made of stretchy material for a secure fit
- Protective Construction: Max Protect with additional foam padding in key impact zones
- Construction: Lightweight, ergonomically shaped slash and bicep guards
- Closure: Lay Flat Straps, lie flat and are easy to use
- Age group: SR
- Sizes: XS, S, M, L

In everyday hockey play, the difference is most noticeable when a pad stays securely in place even during frequent changes of direction and close physical contact. The Sling-Wrap system works in conjunction with the stretchy cuff to ensure the elbow remains well-supported. It also provides additional protection in high-impact areas, while the ergonomic shape on the upper and lower arm supports natural movement. The flat-fitting straps are also practical because they're easy to adjust and cause less interference with the jersey.

For a snug fit, it's best to choose your size based on your arm circumference and desired fit.
