Glove color: black

WARRIOR COVERT LITE SR is a hockey glove designed for regular use in practice and games. Especially during quick stick movements and close contact with the puck, a lightweight, flexible fit is essential—without the glove being unnecessarily bulky during everyday play on the ice. The black design offers a classic, sporty look.

- Product Type: Ice Hockey Glove
- Model: Covert Lite SR
- Age group: Senior

Product information

- Color: black
- Size: 13 inches or 14 inches
- IntendedUse: Practice and Game
- Fit: Designed for a lightweight, flexible glove concept

This model is primarily aimed at senior players looking for a glove that provides a direct feel for the stick and remains easy to use in everyday club play. In hockey, this is particularly noticeable during passes, shots, and quick changes in hand direction. The Covert line is known in the hockey world for its game-oriented, agile design, which suits players who value mobility and unrestricted handling.

Choosing the right length helps with selection: 13 inches is generally more compact, while 14 inches offers slightly more space and coverage for senior players.
