Product information

Textile dye: thunder

Textile size-1: SR

The WARRIOR ZIP HOODY AURUM TRV SR is a training jacket for hockey players looking for a warm, comfortable layer to wear before or after practice, as well as during everyday club activities. The brushed fabric feels soft, keeps you comfortably warm, and—thanks to the blend of materials—remains flexible enough for the walk to the locker room, warm-ups, or quiet moments during practice.

- Material: 67% polyester, 28% cotton, 5% spandex
- Construction: brushed, warm, and soft polyester fabric
- Cut: Raglan sleeve design for unrestricted shoulder movement
- Fit: offset panel construction and elastic waistband
- Closure: full-length front zipper
- Pockets: 2 side pockets
- Details: Gold logo with heat-transfer print
- Variant: Color: Thunder, Size: SR in S through XXXL

For club players in particular, it's crucial that a hoodie isn't just warm—it also adapts well to the fast-paced transitions between the gym, the locker room, and everyday life. The raglan construction relieves tension in the shoulder area, while the paneled design and elastic waistband ensure a comfortable fit. As a result, the top doesn't feel stiff but rather relaxed and comfortable. The "Thunder" color has a subtle look, while the gold logo adds a striking accent.

When making your selection, be sure to check the desired fit in SR as well as the appropriate size from S to XXXL.
