In everyday hockey life, the most important thing about a hoodie is that it fits comfortably and performs reliably whether you're in the locker room, on the ice, or on your way home. That's exactly where this model shines: The terry cloth lining feels soft, while the zipper makes it easy to slip on and off over training gear. Ribbed cuffs ensure that the sleeves and hem fit snugly without feeling tight. The black-khaki version has a sporty look and stays true to the typical team uniform style.

When it comes to junior clothing, it's worth taking a quick look at the right size, especially if the hoodie is worn over protective gear or workout clothes.
