The WARRIOR T-SHIRT COVERT TECH BLACK SR is a lightweight hockey shirt designed for regular training and intense workouts where staying dry and moving freely are key. The thin polyester fabric is lightweight and comfortable, while Wartech technology wicks moisture away from the body.

- Technology: Wartech Moisture Management
 - How it works: Sweat and moisture are wicked away from the body

- Details: Printed logos, tone-on-tone W logo on the lower back
- Color: Black
- Size: SR in S, M, L, XL, XXL, and XXXL

Especially during club practice or when warming up before a game, a shirt that stays lightweight and quickly wicks moisture away is ideal. The pre-shaped shoulder panels support a sporty fit without making the top feel stiff. In addition, the integrated stretch panels on the sides provide greater freedom of movement, which is noticeably comfortable on the ice during quick arm movements and during off-ice activities. The black version has a understated and athletic look, featuring subtle logos instead of bold contrasts.
