The WARRIOR HOODY SPORTS BLACK JR is a hoodie for young hockey players who want to stay a little warmer and more comfortable before or after practice. The soft jersey fleece on the inside feels comfortable against the skin, while the black design keeps things simple for everyday club wear.

Especially for young athletes, a hoodie is often more than just an extra layer. Whether on the way to the gym, during breaks between sessions, or while warming up, the soft inner fabric ensures a comfortable fit. The ribbed cuffs help ensure a clean fit, even when things get a little hectic in the locker room or during practice. The kangaroo pocket offers space for cold hands or small items that need to be quickly within reach.

When choosing a size, the most important thing is to select the right JR size so that the hoodie fits loosely without being unnecessarily baggy during everyday hockey activities.
