Textile size: One size fits most

The AYCANE GINO beanie is a simple hockey beanie designed for cold walks to the arena, warming up outdoors, or everyday wear during practice and games. Available in black, it pairs effortlessly with the rest of your team and casual wear and features a understated, sporty look.

- Product Type: Cap for sports and leisure
- Intended use: before and after hockey practice, as well as for everyday wear
- Color: black
- Size: One size fits most
- Fit: Designed to fit a wide range of head sizes
- Style: Simple and team-friendly

Especially in everyday club life, gear that works without much thought is essential. A one-size-fits-most cap is easy to pack, pairs well with other clothing, and is particularly practical for players, coaches, or parents who are often on the move between the arena, locker room, and the trip home on cool days. The minimalist design keeps the look understated and sporty without drawing too much attention to itself.

With “one size fits most,” the cap fits a wide range of head sizes, though the fit may vary depending on personal preference.
