WARRIOR HOSE ALPHA X ASPIRE NAVY SR are hockey pants designed for regular use in practice and games. Especially in everyday club play, it's important to have gear that combines freedom of movement with a game-ready fit. The navy-colored version in senior sizes is designed for adults looking for a clean, athletic look in their protective gear.

- Product Type: Hockey Pants
- Model Series: Alpha X Aspire
- IntendedUse: Practice and Games
- Age group: SR / Senior
- Color: navy
- Available sizes: S, M, L, XL, XXL, XXXL
- Fit: Designed for use as ice hockey pants

Within the Alpha-X Aspire line, this model is ideal for players looking for a balanced combination of mobility and classic pant construction on the ice. During practice sessions with frequent changes of direction and in games with tight space in front of the net, you need pants that integrate seamlessly with the rest of your gear and don't unnecessarily restrict your movement. The Senior version is therefore well-suited for adult recreational and club players.

When choosing a size, it's worth considering your other protective gear to ensure the pants fit well in combination with shin guards and shoulder pads.
