- Product Type: Stadium Jacket

- Model: Alpha X Stadium

The WARRIOR Alpha X Stadium is ideal for club players, coaches, and teams looking for a practical jacket for training and games. The SR cut is designed for adults and older youth players in the senior division. The navy version has a understated and sporty look in a team setting without drawing too much attention to itself. As a stadium jacket, this model is designed for typical hockey situations where you need to quickly add to your gear: on the way to the locker room, heading to the arena, or while waiting on the sidelines.

The SR sizes—S, M, L, XL, and XXL—make it easy to find the right fit.
