WARRIOR SHORTS AURUM TECH BLACK SR are designed for practice and games when freedom of movement and a comfortable fit are essential on the hockey field. The black design has a understated look and pairs well with team and practice uniforms. In size SR, this model is designed for adult players looking for functional shorts for regular use.

- Product Type: Hockey Shorts

- Intended Use: Training, games, and team wear for everyday hockey
- Fit: Designed as shorts for athletic use

Especially in everyday club life, you need shorts that work without any fuss and remain comfortable during running drills, changes of direction, and warm-up routines. The Aurum-Tech model fits perfectly into this category: designed with sports in mind, kept simple, and suitable for players who use their gear during practice as well as before or after the game in the arena and around the locker room.

When choosing a size, it helps to quickly compare it to your usual SR apparel size, especially if the shorts will be worn with other team apparel.
