Product information

Textile dye: navy

Textile size-1: SR

WARRIOR WARRIOR SHORTS AURUM TECH NAVY SR are hockey shorts designed for practice, games, and regular use in club activities. The shorts come in navy and are sized for seniors, making them a great option for adult players who prefer a practical, no-fuss choice when it comes to their gear.

- Product Type: Hockey Shorts
- Model: Aurum Tech
- AgeGroup: SR
- Color: navy
- Sizes: S, M, L, XL, XXL, XXXL
- Intended Use: Training, everyday team activities, and game preparation
- Fit: Designed as short athletic pants for freedom of movement in hockey

In hockey, in particular, clothing must move with every action without causing unnecessary complications while running, changing direction, or in the locker room. That's exactly where this model fits in: as functional team and training shorts for players who are regularly on the field or in the arena and are looking for a clean, athletic design. The senior version fits well into the adult category, for example for club and recreational players who want to keep their gear neat and uniform.

When choosing, the most important factor is selecting the right size within the SR version so that the shorts fit comfortably during everyday hockey play.
