WARRIOR SHORTS AURUM TECH NAVY JR are junior shorts designed for training, warm-ups, and the trip to the arena. These shorts are aimed at young players who prioritize freedom of movement and a comfortable fit in their everyday hockey routine. The navy-colored design has a sporty look and pairs easily with team uniforms and training tops.

- Product Type: Junior shorts for hockey and training
- Model: Aurum Tech
- Agegroup: JR
- Color: navy
- Sizes: XS, S, M, L, XL
- Fit: Designed for use as athletic shorts

Especially in youth sports, training shorts have to withstand a lot: quick changes of direction, running drills, strength training, and changing clothes between school, practice, and game days. This is exactly where this model shines. As lightweight, sport-oriented training shorts, they stay focused on the essentials and are just as suitable for indoor sessions as they are for off-ice hockey activities. It's also helpful for parents and clubs that the shorts are available in multiple junior sizes, making it easy to coordinate them within a team.

When selecting a pair, the most important factor is choosing the right junior size so that the shorts fit loosely during practice without restricting movement while running or doing exercise drills.
