Textile size-1: SR

The WARRIOR AURUM TRAVEL SR Jacket is a training and team jacket designed for everyday hockey life—whether you need a lightweight extra layer before hitting the ice, on your way to the arena, or between practice sessions. The soft polyester knit fabric is comfortable to wear without adding unnecessary bulk, and the raglan sleeve design allows for freedom of movement in the shoulders and arms.

- Material: 100% polyester, lightweight and soft polyester knit fabric
- Construction: Raglan sleeve design for natural freedom of movement
- Closure: Front zipper
- Pockets: 2 zippered pockets
- Detail: Gold logo in heat-transfer print
- Color: black
- Sizes: SR in S, M, L, XL, XXL, and XXXL

Especially in club sports, it's important to have clothing that's practical and blends seamlessly with the rest of your gear. The lightweight polyester is ideal for the trip to practice, for breaks between sessions, or as a uniform team option off the ice. The front zipper allows for quick adjustments, while the two pockets provide space for small items like keys or a cell phone. The gold logo adds a striking accent to the black design without compromising its athletic character.

When selecting a size, the SR version serves as a guide for adults; the appropriate size depends on the desired fit and whether the jacket will be worn over base layers or teamwear.
