In everyday hockey life, you need clothing that works seamlessly during movement, warm-ups, and short breaks. That’s exactly where this model shines: The fabric wicks moisture away from the body and dries quickly, keeping you comfortable—especially during regular training sessions. The zippered pockets are handy for keys, tape, or other small items that need to be quickly accessible in the locker room or while traveling. The black design with gold details adds a clean touch without being too flashy in a team setting.

When selecting a size, the SR version serves as a guide for adults; sizes range from S to XXXL.
