Especially in the world of hockey, where team apparel must hold up in the locker room, on the road, and on the ice, a balanced blend of a polished look and comfortable wear is essential. This polo is clearly designed for use as team or staff apparel. The chest pocket complements the classic style without compromising its athletic character. The subtly placed W logo on the lower back keeps the brand presence intentionally understated.

When selecting sizes from the SR range, it's worth considering the preferred fit for the team's day-to-day activities, especially if the polo shirts are being ordered as a uniform for multiple people.
