Product information

Textile dye: black

Textile size-1: SR

WARRIOR LEGGINGS SR are an obvious choice for training, warm-ups, and wearing under hockey gear when a snug, flexible layer is needed. The black design has a simple look and can be easily paired with existing team uniforms for everyday club activities.

- Product Type: Leggings for hockey, training, and off-ice activities
- Fit: form-fitting for a snug fit
- Usage: as an additional layer or worn on its own during training
- Age group: SR
- Color: black
- Sizes: XS, S, M, L, XL

Especially during regular training sessions, you need clothing that doesn't restrict movement and fits well under other gear. This is exactly where the WARRIOR LEGGINGS SR come in: form-fitting, easy to wear, and perfect for senior players looking for a clean, functional solution without unnecessary extras. For club players, this is especially practical when there's little time to spare between the ice, the locker room, and strength training.

When selecting a pair, consider the desired, somewhat snug fit and choose the appropriate size within the SR range.
