The WARRIOR Aurum Tech Tee is a T-shirt designed for training, warm-ups, and the trip to the gym. Available in red and size SR, it's designed primarily for senior players looking for a lightweight top for regular club sessions. The athletic cut of a Tech Tee is well-suited for high-movement situations both on and off the field.

Hockey training, in particular, calls for clothing that doesn't restrict movement and fits seamlessly into a team's weekly schedule. This shirt fits the bill perfectly: a functional training garment from WARRIOR designed for regular sessions, indoor practice times, or casual off-ice activities. Its clear classification as a Tech Tee makes it particularly appealing to club players who look for a sport-oriented fit in their training gear and a style that complements the rest of their equipment.

The SR sizing serves as a guide for the senior range; sizes range from S to XXL.
