WARRIOR WARRIOR SHORTS TM TRAIN NAVY SR are training shorts designed for everyday hockey use—whether on the ice, in the arena, or during athletic training—when freedom of movement and a comfortable, uncomplicated fit are essential. The navy-colored version in senior sizes is designed specifically for club players and teams looking for clean, sport-oriented gear for regular practice sessions.

- Product Type: Training shorts for hockey and off-ice training
- Intended Use: Training, warm-ups, and general athletic activities
- Age group: SR
- Sizes: S, M, L, XL, XXL, XXXL
- Color: navy
- Fit: Designed for freedom of movement during training

Especially in regular club activities, gear that works without much thought is essential. Training shorts like these are suitable for a wide range of sessions, from a relaxed warm-up to more intense off-ice summer training. The cut is designed for athletic movement, ensuring that skating, mobility, and quick changes of direction aren't restricted. In the Senior version, this model is particularly well-suited for adult players as well as for teams that prioritize a uniform, understated color scheme for their uniforms.

When selecting a size, take a quick look at the desired senior size to ensure the shorts aren't too tight or unnecessarily loose during practice.
