NUTRIATHLETIC NA COLLAGEN POWDER in the Sicilian Lemon flavor is a great option for athletes who want to easily and conveniently incorporate an additional source of protein into their daily training routine. The bioactive collagen hydrolysate is primarily aimed at ambitious club players and active athletes who are looking for an easily integrable supplement to support muscle and strength building.

- Product Type: Collagen powder for protein supplementation
- Protein source: bioactive collagen hydrolysate
- Flavor: Sicilian Lemon
- Intended Use: Sports nutrition for muscle and strength building
- Everyday use: Easily integrated into your daily diet

Especially during periods of regular team training, athletic workouts, and games, maintaining a consistent protein intake is often a challenge. A collagen powder like this can be easily incorporated into your diet and conveniently supplements your daily protein intake. The Sicilian Lemon flavor offers a refreshing twist, providing variety compared to neutral powders or classic standard flavors.

When it comes to sports nutrition, it’s worth taking a quick look at your personal nutrition plan and how you intend to use the product during training or on days off from games.
