patterns, balance, and edge work should be properly developed even during dryland training.

- System: Marsblade O1 chassis with a flexible design
- Product Type: Off-ice inline chassis for hockey training
- Feel: Designed for a roll and balance profile similar to that on ice
- Intended Use: Technical, skating, and athletic training off the ice
- Age group: Junior
- Size: Skate Size 4
- Fit: D Regular
- Shoe size: JR

The O1 system has been in high demand in hockey for years, especially when training time off the ice needs to be used effectively. The flexible design promotes active leg work and requires balance—just as is constantly needed on the ice. For young players and parents looking for a well-rounded training solution for their kids, this junior version is a great option because the size and fit are clearly tailored to smaller frames.

It's important to ensure the right fit for JR shoe size, skate size 4, and regular width D.
