Especially in indoor or field hockey, you quickly end up with more gear than will fit in a small bag. The 60-liter size provides plenty of practical space for items like a change of clothes, shoes, a water bottle, and other training and match essentials. The duffel design remains easy to handle and is particularly well-suited for quickly packing and unpacking gear. In black/neon orange, the model looks sporty and striking without taking the focus away from its functionality.

If you regularly travel with more luggage or are looking for a clear, spacious bag solution for your daily club activities, this size is the right choice for you.
