A hoodie like the EXEL Outlaw is especially useful when you don't want to reach for a thick jacket every time you move between the locker room, warm-up area, and the sidelines. For club players and coaches, the most important thing is that the clothing is low-maintenance, easy to mix and match, and looks put-together even off the field. The black version keeps the look simple and sporty, which is often just right in a team setting.

For size XL, we recommend choosing based on how you plan to wear it: closer to the body for heading straight to practice, or a bit looser over sportswear.
