Pocket volume: 22l
Bag color: black
Brand: Interhockey

The Interhockey MESSENGER BAG is a practical hockey bag for everyday use—whether you're heading to practice, the arena, or on your way to the club. With a 22-liter capacity, this messenger-style bag offers enough space for your essentials when you don't need to bring your entire gear set. In black, it has a understated look and fits well into your active daily routine.

- Product Type: Messenger bag for hockey and everyday use
- Volume: 22 L
- Color: black
- Uses: Training, club activities, and short trips to the arena
- Storage space: suitable for clothing, documents, and small pieces of equipment
- Carrying design: Messenger-style for quick packing and easy access

Especially for club players, coaches, or parents of youth athletes, a compact bag is often a more practical choice than a large gear bag. The 22-liter capacity helps you carry a change of clothes, indoor shoes, accessories, or organizational items in an organized manner. The messenger-style design is well-suited for situations where you need to move quickly before or after practice and want individual items within easy reach without having to search for them.

If you regularly need to carry your full set of protective gear, a larger bag is recommended.
