Especially when it comes to training, game day, or the trip to the arena, a cap is often a natural part of your gear alongside your actual sports equipment. This model is aimed primarily at fans of Swiss wrestling and sports enthusiasts who want to maintain a distinctively athletic look even off the field. The reference to Remo Käser gives the cap a distinctive character without being overly conspicuous.

The one-size-fits-all design makes it easy to choose when a simple, hassle-free fit is desired. For very small or very large head circumferences, we recommend briefly checking how it fits based on your personal wearing habits.
