WARRIOR PLEXI MFE 106X PRO is a sleekly designed ice hockey visor for club players and ambitious youth players who are looking for an unobstructed field of vision and a seamless fit with their existing helmet during practice and games. The uniform curvature supports a natural forward field of vision, while the polycarbonate is designed to withstand the rigors of everyday hockey play.

- Product Type: Ice Hockey Visor
 - Construction: precise, uniformly curved shape

Product information

- Material: highly durable polycarbonate

Especially at high speeds and under changing conditions in the arena, it becomes clear just how important an unobstructed view remains. This visor combines a clear design with protective coatings against fogging and scratches, ensuring that your view of the puck, teammates, and the game situation remains as unobstructed as possible. It also features a design that fits neatly onto various helmet types. This is particularly convenient for regular club play, when equipment needs to function reliably and switching gear should remain straightforward.

Before installation, briefly check the mounting points on the helmet. CE-certified.
