TRUE A6.0 NAVY JR is a 12-inch junior hockey glove designed for young players looking for a classic fit with plenty of mobility during practice and games. The traditional four-roll construction fits comfortably on the hand, while the navy

Product information

colorway maintains a sporty yet understated look.

- Product Type: Junior Ice Hockey Glove
- Fit: traditional, designed for comfort
- Construction: Four-roll design
- Palm: AX suede, sewn-in
- Padding: PRO-GRADE EPP foam with PE inserts
- Thumb: TRUEFLEXX+ Lock Thumb for greater mobility
- Cuff: Ergonomic and flexible for unrestricted wrist movement
- Size: 12 inches

Especially for young players, a glove makes a big difference when it effectively combines protection, grip, and freedom of movement. The AX suede palm provides a direct feel for the stick, which remains noticeable during puck handling, passing, and shooting. At the same time, the PRO-GRADE EPP foam with PE inserts helps better absorb hard impacts on the ice. The combination of a flexible cuff and a movable TRUEFLEXX+ thumb is particularly comfortable, as it allows the wrist to move freely during quick actions.

A 12-inch size generally fits the junior range; for precise stick control, the glove should be neither too tight nor too long.
