For goalies playing at the club level and participating in regular training, it's especially important that replacement parts fit their existing mask perfectly and integrate seamlessly with their current gear. This cage is precisely designed for the Reebok P10 Pro and is intended for senior players who want to maintain or upgrade their face mask. The cat-eye shape is a well-known design in the goalie community and is one of those parts where a precise fit is crucial.

Before making your selection, it's worth quickly checking your helmet model and SR helmet size.
