The CCM GOALER CORE CARRY BAG NAVY is a spacious ice hockey goalie bag designed to carry a complete set of goalie gear. Especially in everyday club life, when shin guards, the catching glove, blocker, pants, and protective gear all need to be brought along to practice or a game, a large packing capacity and clear, straightforward handling are what matter most.

With a capacity of 185 liters, this bag offers the space that's often crucial for goalies. The 42-inch SR version is designed primarily for adult goalies and competitive youth players whose equipment already takes up a lot of space. As a classic carry bag, it stays true to what's needed in everyday hockey life: packing all your gear together, stowing it securely, and transporting it from the locker room to the car or the arena without any unnecessary extras. The navy-colored version blends in seamlessly with everyday team and training routines.

When selecting a bag, it's worth taking a quick look at the size and volume of your existing goalie gear to ensure the bag's capacity accommodates your full SR setup.
