Especially when it comes to goalie equipment, a generous packing capacity is often more important than any extra features. This bag provides space for all the essential gear and, as a classic carry bag, remains easy to handle. This is especially practical in club settings when you need to move quickly after practice or when carrying equipment directly between the rink, locker room, and car. The black design is understated and complements the rest of your gear.

The 42-inch size is designed to meet the needs of senior-level players. Before making a selection, it's worth quickly checking whether the volume of your personal goalie setup fits within the available storage space.
