The FANATICS AUTHENTIC PRO DRAFT STRUCTURED TRUCKER SEATTLE KRAKEN is a cap for fans who want to visibly show their support for the 2024 NHL Draft and the Seattle Kraken's roster development. The structured trucker design combines a distinctive fit with everyday comfort, while the front graphic clearly highlights the team connection. Available in navy, this model is easy to wear on game day, at practice, or on the way to the arena.

- Product Type: Structured Trucker Cap
- Team Reference: Seattle Kraken 2024 Draft graphic on the front
- Fit: Flex Hat with adjustable fit
- Size: One size fits most
- Usage: Leisure, game day, and arena settings
- Color: navy

This model makes a bold statement, especially for hockey fans looking for more than just a standard fan accessory during the draft, the start of the season, and when it comes to team identity. The flexible fit is comfortable to wear for extended periods, which is noticeably more practical than a rigid cap during everyday arena life, while traveling, or at youth tournaments. The structured shape maintains a distinct silhouette, while the Kraken graphic permanently captures the connection to the new players and this season.

The one-size-fits-all design accommodates many head shapes; therefore, your preferred cap style should be the main consideration when making your selection.
