WARRIOR SHORT ALPHA X TRAINING NAVY JR is a pair of training shorts designed for everyday youth hockey. Available in navy and junior size L, these shorts are ideal for regular practice sessions on the field, in the gym, or during athletic training, when freedom of movement and low-maintenance gear are top priorities.

- Product Type: Hockey training shorts
- IntendedUse: Training, indoor sessions, and everyday club activities
- Age group: Junior
- Size: L
- Color: Navy
- Fit: Designed for movement during training

Younger players, in particular, need shorts that don't restrict their movement while running, changing direction, or during intense training sessions. That's exactly where this junior model fits in: sporty, simple, and designed for practical use during hockey training. The dark navy color also pairs well with standard team uniforms, which is often helpful in club settings.

For parents and teams, clear sizing is especially important: Junior size L is suitable for youth players and should be coordinated with standard team or practice uniforms.
