Product information

- Package Contents: Orange wristband

In everyday hockey, details like these are often more important than they seem at first glance. A separate wristband complements the referee's uniform perfectly and helps keep the equipment complete, whether for individual assignments, the club's inventory, or as a spare in the equipment room. The orange version is specifically designed for the intended use and can be easily combined with existing referee uniforms.

For teams and clubs, it's worth taking a quick look at the specified size S/4 or the size range 44-50 to ensure the armband fits the existing uniform.
