- Volume: 205 L
- Uses: Training, game days, and equipment transport
- Color: black/white/gold
- Model: PRO

Especially in everyday club life, a large bag makes all the difference: equipment stays in one place, packing is easier, and even with longer distances between the locker room, the arena, and the ice, it's easier to keep track of everything. This is particularly useful for players who train regularly, as well as for goalies, whose gear takes up significantly more space than standard equipment.

If you're looking for a spacious bag for a full set of hockey gear, be sure to match the bag's exterior dimensions to your specific storage needs and the distance you'll be carrying it.
