- Target audience: Coaches, staff, and clubs

Unlike a simple writing pad, this Deluxe version is designed to keep things organized on the sidelines. Notes, lineup charts, or quick adjustments can be kept neatly organized without having to constantly rearrange loose sheets of paper. This is especially practical in youth and club settings, where a lot of information needs to be conveyed clearly in a short amount of time and every break is used efficiently.

For schools, clubs, and coaching staff, a clipboard is particularly useful when meetings take place flexibly between the gym, locker room, and bench.
