In hockey, in particular, a cap is simply a must-have piece of gear for many players off the ice or rink floor. It keeps your look polished for training and games without seeming out of place in everyday life. WARRIOR’s 20th Edition thus appeals particularly to club players and fans of the brand who want to make a clear hockey statement even when they’re away from the locker room. The one-size-fits-most design keeps the selection simple, which is also practical for teams or as a gift within a club setting.

Since it’s “one size fits most,” it’s worth taking a quick look at your preferred fit—depending on whether you’d like the cap to fit more snugly or loosely.
