Product information

- Intended use: Protecting blades off the ice
- Variant: 145
- Color: silver glitz
- Fit: Universal design for various skate sizes

For young players, club players, and parents looking for a hassle-free solution to protect skate blades in everyday life, a universal blade guard is particularly practical. It can be quickly integrated into existing gear and is well-suited for situations where skates are regularly moved between the locker room, hallways, and bags. The Deluxe version in silver glitter clearly stands out visually from plain standard models without losing sight of its actual purpose.

Before making a selection, it's worth taking a quick look at the 145 length to ensure the blade guard fits the skates you're using.
