Product information

- Intended Use: Casual wear, travel to the rink, and off-ice activities

In everyday hockey life, it's not just the equipment on the ice that matters. Whether around practice or on the way to the rink, you need shoes that fit comfortably and blend seamlessly into your daily routine. The suede upper gives this model a classic look that sets it apart from purely functional athletic shoes. As a result, this shoe appeals primarily to younger players and hockey enthusiasts looking for a simple addition to their active lifestyle.

When choosing a pair, the most important factor is finding the right shoe size—here, EU 35.
