Product information

The INTERHOCKEY SHIRT BOSTON JR is a versatile shirt for young hockey players, ideal for practice, warm-ups, and everyday club activities. For juniors in particular, it's important to have clothing that fits comfortably and allows for freedom of movement on the field or in the arena. The Boston 120 model clearly positions this shirt in the children's category.

- Product Type: Multi-purpose shirt for juniors
- Intended use: Hockey training, warm-ups, and everyday team activities
- Age group: Junior
- Model: Boston 120
- Sizes: 120, 130, 140, 150, 160
- Fit: Tailored to children's and youth sizes

For youth players, a jersey must above all be suitable for everyday use: It shouldn't restrict movement while running, handling the stick, or making quick changes of direction during practice, and at the same time, it should look sharp as part of a uniform team outfit. That's exactly where this junior model fits in perfectly. Its versatile design makes it ideal for use during training and club activities when a practical and straightforward solution is needed.

When choosing a size, check your child's usual clothing size to ensure the shirt is neither too tight nor unnecessarily loose.
