Textile dye: black

The INTERHOCKEY KOMBI LANG DENVER SR is a long hockey uniform designed for everyday training and games, when a closed, functional base layer is needed under your gear. The black version has a understated look and fits right in with club activities. In the Senior version, this model is primarily aimed at adults and older juniors who are looking for a uniform, practical solution for regular practice sessions.

- Product Type: Long hockey uniform
- Version: SR
- Model: Denver
- Color: black
- Sizes: S, M, L, XL, XXL
- Intended use: Training, game days, and changing into gear

A one-piece suit is particularly useful in hockey when you want to ensure nothing slips out of place under your protective gear and to eliminate the need to put on multiple separate pieces. Especially in everyday club life—in the locker room before practice or when quickly changing between warm-up and the ice—this provides a clean, uncomplicated foundation. The SR fit covers standard adult sizes and is suitable for players who prefer a one-piece garment to the classic two-piece set.

When choosing a size, it's worth considering the desired fit under the rest of your gear to ensure the jersey isn't too tight and doesn't interfere with your protective gear.
