TRUE TRUE HOSE PERFORMANCE SR are training pants designed for everyday hockey life—whether you need a comfortable, athletic-fit layer before warm-ups, on your way to the locker room, or after getting off the ice. The athletic fit hugs the body without looking unnecessarily baggy and is well-suited for regular club activities.

- Material: 100% polyester fleece, 280 g/m²
- Fit: athletic cut
- Features: quick-drying fabric

Product information

- Sizes: S through XXL

Especially for club players who wear training gear frequently, it's important to have pants that are easy to wear and move with you. The fleece material feels comfortable against the skin, while the quick-drying polyester remains practical after intense workouts or when moving between the gym, locker room, and outdoor play. The elastic inner waistband with drawstring helps ensure a snug, secure fit so the pants stay in place during movement, warm-ups, or rest periods throughout your workout.

In black, this style pairs easily with team uniforms and other hockey apparel. When choosing a size, it's worth considering your preferred fit, especially if you'll be wearing technical layers underneath.
