The TRUE T-SHIRT SPLATTER JR is a junior shirt designed for training, warm-ups, and the trip to the gym—when freedom of movement and a comfortable, hassle-free fit are essential. The athletic fit hugs the body without unnecessarily restricting movement on the field. In cyan, the shirt makes a bold color statement.

Especially for young athletes, a shirt is comfortable when it stays lightweight during practice and doesn't remain damp against the skin for long after intense sessions. The fabric blend combines the soft feel of cotton with the functional properties of polyester and a touch of spandex for greater flexibility. This makes it ideal for regular indoor sessions, off-ice training, or casual club activities where a sporty fit is desired.

The athletic fit is more form-fitting than a classic casual shirt. For a slightly looser fit, choosing the next larger JR size may be a good option.
