The TRUE PULLOVER FLEECE CREWNECK SR is a functional team and training pullover for everyday hockey life off the ice—whether you're on your way to the arena or taking a break during warm-ups. The crewneck design keeps the look simple, while the fleece material is designed to provide comfortable warmth and quick-drying performance.

Especially for club players and teams who train regularly and often wear the same clothing between the locker room, the arena, and recovery, a sweater that's easy to use is essential. The polyester fleece features a substantial fabric weight of 280 g/m² and therefore feels noticeably sturdier than a thin training top. At the same time, the fabric dries faster, which is comfortable during hockey play after warming up or after changing out of sweaty gear. The athletic fit hugs the body more closely without losing the character of a classic crew neck.

The Groß size classification helps with selection; sizes S through XXL are available within this style.
