Product information

- Fit: Jogger cut with a sporty silhouette suitable for everyday wear

Especially for youth players, clothing that's practical and doesn't get in the way of everyday club life is key. Terry jogger pants strike a balance between classic training pants and comfortable casual wear: they're comfortable for quieter moments before or after practice, yet still suitable when a bit more mobility is needed in the gym or on the sidelines. The jogger cut helps the pants stay close to the leg and fit neatly in a sports setting.

When choosing from the junior sizes, it's worth considering the usual fit to ensure there's enough freedom of movement for school, club activities, and everyday indoor use.
