For goalies playing for a club or participating in regular indoor training, the right jersey is more than just a top. It needs to be designed for goalies—fitting neatly over the rest of the gear without unnecessarily restricting movement. The EXEL GOALIE JERSEY S100 ORANGE/BLACK fits perfectly into this category and is ideal for goalies looking for a practical, sports-oriented solution for training and matches.

When choosing a size, it's worth taking a look at your other goalie gear to ensure the jersey fits well over your protective gear and pants.
