Product information

Color: black

The EXEL HEADBAND 2-PACK provides exactly what's often missing on the field during practice and games: a headband that reliably keeps hair out of your face and helps reduce sweat around your eyes. Especially during intense indoor sessions or quick line changes, this small detail has a noticeable impact on concentration. The black version is part of the Essentials line, and the set includes two headbands.

- Product Type: Headband for hockey and training
- Line: Essentials
- Package contents: 2-pack
- Color: black
- Accessory colors: pink, black and white, turquoise
- Uses: Training, games, and general sports training

A 2-pack is especially practical for club players and youth teams because having a fresh headband on hand is often essential during daily training. A second one in your bag also comes in handy at tournaments or when traveling. The headband is one of those pieces of equipment that's meant to be inconspicuous but is quickly appreciated on the field as movement, pace, and sweat increase. Thanks to its simple black design, it pairs easily with a variety of team and training apparel.

When making your selection, it's worth taking a quick look at the desired color combination for your accessories.
