In a referee's day-to-day work, it's essential to have gear that's suited to the job on the ice and blends seamlessly with the official look. These pants are designed specifically for this purpose. The black design matches the classic look for hockey referees and is suitable for individuals as well as for teams or club orders. Especially during regular assignments, practice games, or championship matches, clearly identifiable referee pants are an important part of the complete uniform.

To help you choose, take a quick look at the appropriate referee size to ensure the pants fit properly during use and harmonize with the rest of your referee gear.
