For goalkeepers playing at the club level, the balance between visibility, fit, and freedom of movement is particularly important. The Cateye double bar cage is well-known in goalkeeping circles and promotes an unobstructed field of view in front of the body, which plays a crucial role when reacting to shots, changes in direction, and chaotic situations in the crease. At the same time, this senior model is designed for players looking for a mask for regular use in indoor and club settings, without having to make the selection process unnecessarily complicated.

When choosing the right size, it's worth taking a close look at how the mask fits around the forehead, sides, and chin. Available in M and L.
